Abu Ayman al-Iraqi Not Wanting to Rule by the Sharia of Allah

Next tweet is a translation with background Info, I ask all brothers and sisters who support IS and all IS members to ponder this:

>Follow Salman Al Arjani, a Shar3i in the JN led Dar Al Qatha (for implementing the Sharia) and a Shar3i close to Harakat Sham Al Islam recently joined IS. When he did many IS supporters rejoiced and pointed him as an example of IS being on the hAq. So ponder what he says:

He writes"What I Said about Abu Aymen Al Iraqi (IS Wali in the coast, reportedly a relative of Baghdadi and a big leader currently in IS) I still testify to it and I will not change what I said even if the sword was put on my Neck! ... (I will be) from amongst the losers if I were to fear anyone created (besides Allah) regardless of who it is!"

This is the link for that translation https://twitter.com/abohafs1883/status/528816883337035777 ...

Now what was his testimony against Abu Aymen Al Iraqi? He said that Abu Aymen said "I don't want the Sharia of Allah, I want the law of the Jungle!!" | what a wicked statement and u know well that Some In IS and outside of IS would make takfeer on him for this. When Al Arayjan was pressed to "verify the statement" And make sure b4 accusing Abu Aymen, he responds to a IS supporter saying "I was sitting infront of him when I heard him say this! So free us of your doubts/suspicions, do not show Ta3sub to People but only for th Truth alone!".

Keep in mind Abu Aymen is a key leader in IS who commands many IS fighters
